Focus & Visibility

The diffusion of the event will take place through the press, on daily newspapers and specialized magazines, via internet, on the major portals of art and culture, radio and TV.

11. The artists's names and their biography will be published on the NOWART magazine.
12. Transportation and insurance of the artwork are the artist responsibility, NOWART can assist in the organization of the transportation and eventually recommend an insurance partner, but is exempt from any responsibility. The gallery does not deal the damages that can be suffered by the works not properly packaged during the transport, therefore it is essential that the works are adequately packed, with a protection that prevents any damage during transport; we recommend packing the works with bubble wrap + plywood and / or wooden boxes.
13. During the exhibition there will be a public vote in which the winner will be chosen for the Public Award.
14. The winning artists will be inserted and presented on the Nowart website <http://www.nowart.it/english/>
15. Each artist that participates in the exhibition will be given a certificate of participation which can be used as personal advertising and added to a CV.

Selling of the artworks

15. The artist can freely sell the works of art they show at the exhibition, if the work of art is sold by a NOWART consultant, then 80% of the cost will go to the artist and 20% will be kept by NOWART. The selling price will be agreed upon with the artist before the exhibition begins. The artist share will be delivered via bank transfer onto a bank account.

Examinator Committee

The exhibited works will be submitted to a committee of experts and operators in the sector including:

- The staff of InArte, of which Antonello Diodato Guardigli is the Lombard Director of the European Union Experts of Art, Gallery and Merchant of Art.
- Stefano Liberati, official consultant at Rome Courthouse and at Italian Republic Public Prosecutor. He is the President of the European Union of Art Experts.
